DANILO LOVINO - Keyboards

Born in Castellanza on 3 December 1983 he began his piano studies at the age of 8.

At the age of 10 he took part in the International Competition for young musicians held in Urbino, ranking first.

With M ° Franca Moschini he takes the path of classical music preparing him for admission at the Conservatory of Music "G. Rossini". He continued his studies with Maestro Lorenzo Bavaj (pianist of tenor Josè Carreras) who will accompany him until he graduates.

After 2 years of training, joined by the same M ° Bavaj, he enrolled again at the Conservatory attending for a short period the course of Harpsichord.

After completing his classical studies he approaches jazz studying with Paolo Jannacci and Massimo Morganti.

At 16 he joined the band Dynamic Lights with which he began a series of concerts with excerpts from the first album of unpublished "Night Lights".

He then joined the Changing Sunrise, a local progressive band that brings live covers mostly taken from the Dream Theater repertoire.

Intrigued by the singer-songwriter music, he began to collaborate with the Fanese singer-songwriter Luca Vagnini in his first recording work "Everything I see outside the window" co-produced with the Oscar-winning Marco Falagiani, and later "the Invisible" where he takes care of part of the orchestration and arrangements.

He starts a series of live shows with Luca Vagnini treading several important Italian stages.

He also collaborates with "Piazza Grande" (a tribute to the great Lucio Dalla), Iskra Menarini and Riccardo Majorana the two chorister historians of Lucio Dalla.

In 2014 he joined the junior orchestra "Mosaico Musicale" where he followed the young pianists in the various repertoires: from the classics of symphonic music to the repertoire of the great jazz musicians.

Lover of various musical genres: classical, pop, rock, metal, prog, blues, jazz, latin.

It is inspired by the great pianists of the past: Bach, Mozart, Beethoven, Chopin, Brahms, Debussy, Rachmaninov, Scriabin, and great keyboardists such as Rick Wackman, Keyth Emerson, Jordan Rudess, Derek Sherinian, Tuomas Holopainen.
